AH SINFUL NATION, A PEOPLE LADEN WITH INIQUITY, A SEED OF EVILDOERS, CHILDREN THAT ARE CORRUPTERS: THEY HAVE FORSAKEN THE LORD, THEY HAVE PROVOKED THE HOLY ONE OF ISRAEL UNTO ANGER, THEY ARE GONE AWAY BACKWARD. WHY SHOULD YE BE STRICKEN ANY MORE? YE WILL REVOLT MORE AND MORE . . . . YOUR COUNTRY IS DESOLATE, YOUR CITIES ARE BURNED WITH FIRE: YOUR LAND, STRANGERS DEVOUR IT IN YOUR PRESENCE, AND IT IS DESOLATE, AS OVERTHROWN BY STRANGERS.

YOGA — a “happy” movement of HEALTH?
— or an unholy movement from HELL?

Hunt—From fast-food franchise promotion to virtual video-game venues, yoga is revolutionizing the fitness movement worldwide—and is even extending its reach directly into the churches and the lifestyles of professing Christians. But is it simply stretching, as some Christians claim? Is it a way to “breathe out” the effects of sin and stress, allowing the believer to “breathe in” the Holy Spirit? Or is yoga one of the greatest Trojan Horses of our time? Promising to bring peace, healing, and wholeness (even prosperity!) to its practitioners, readers will be shocked to discover that yoga is, in fact, based on the worship of (and prepares participants for supernatural connection with) unholy spirits that manifest in extraordinary and dangerous ways. The author—an avid promoter of biblically based physical, mental, and spiritual wholeness—distinguishes pure truth from popular belief in this revealing exposé. Every Christian should be informed of the true origins and effects of the practice of yoga and its ungodly roots in Kundalini energy—which, literally defined, means an awakening of the “Serpent Power.”

NEW! YOGA UNCOILED: From East to West

Matrisciana—If you think that yoga is simply a method of stretching and breathing and therefore an acceptable form of exercise, this video may shock you. Fast-moving visuals and engaging commentary will hold your attention right to the very end. A vivid explanation of the roots and meaning of the words and associations used in yoga will help you to understand its true nature and arm you with information to share with those who may not be aware.

Interviews with practicing yogis and yoga teachers, some claiming to be Christians, will enlighten you further, as will the warnings from some who have come out on the other side of this dark religious practice. You will come to understand the “Kundalini,” or serpent force. What do the various yoga positions represent? Is it possible to separate the spiritual from the physical when it comes to yoga? As believers and Bereans, we need to be cautious of any trends that are infiltrating the church and the public school system. This documentary is a fascinating and helpful tool in building discernment.

ON THE COVER: While the world and even believers turn their backs on God and His Word, the Bible tells us that Satan, as a “roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.” The evidence is all around us in the form of rampant immorality, deviant behavior, tolerance for anything but the truth, including ecumenism, Islam, occultism. The church favors psychology over Scripture, imagery over sound doctrine, whatever it takes to attract a crowd—and the result is a gradual, steady searing of the conscience and a preference for whatever “feels good.”

"They Have Forsaken the Lord"

Dave Hunt

Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger; they are gone away backward.
— Isaiah 1:4-7

Most of us fail to grasp the depths of depravity into which the United States—and the world—are rapidly sinking, provoking a merciful and patient God to judgment. The evidence is overwhelming. Yet we're blinded to the truth like the proverbial frog in the pot that is slowly, by small degrees, being brought to a boil. Deceit is everywhere, and lies pass for truth. The major promoter of abortion calls itself Planned Parenthood. By what perverted logic can a husband and wife who deliberately murdered in the womb what would have been their baby be called its "parents"? Shouldn't the organization that inspired and assisted in this foul deed rather be called "Planned No Parenthood"?

Murder in the womb is cloaked under the innocuous label of "Pro-choice" while at the same time denying any choice to the victim. The "Campaign for Healthy Families" was the group that defeated a proposed ban on abortions in South Dakota. To what "healthy family" do aborted babies belong? In 2006, the National Abortion Federation complained that the Child Interstate Abortion Notification Act would "impose... burdens on teens seeking abortion" by requiring minors to get parental notification to cross state lines in order to get one!<sup>1</sup>

And how do teens get into this predicament? By the immorality held up in a wicked society as a desirable sign of "maturity." To brainwash teenagers with the lie that they can get away with anything that is their choice is evil. God no longer is allowed to have any opinion in the world He made! Our choice overrides His. America has "forsaken the Lord" and is sowing the seeds of its destruction. God cannot withhold His judgment without becoming a partner in our sins.

Between 1960 and 1990, out-of-wedlock births in the USA increased more than 500 percent (from 5.3 percent to 28 percent), single-parent families tripled, about 50 million babies were murdered in the womb, and violent crimes increased 500 percent. About 16,000 crimes occur on or around school campuses each day! In 2005, 37 percent of births were to unwed mothers, up from 36 percent in 2004 and 28 percent in 1990. The report stated that "The overall rise reflects the burgeoning number of people who are putting off marriage or are living together without getting married." Are these the "Healthy Families" that the amoral campaign of that name is building by supporting abortion?

Homosexuals not only flaunt their sin in public, they are fêted, wooed, indulged, and thanked by politicians for their votes. It's Sodom and Gomorrah again—or worse! In January 2007, Christian Vanneste, an MP in France's ruling party was fined nearly $4,000 for saying that homosexuality is "inferior to heterosexuality" and would be "dangerous for humanity if it was pushed to the limit." Of course, these are the facts. But daring to express the undeniable truth unleashes the wrath of police and courts in their zeal to protect the feelings of a favored class that complains of being offended.

Homosexuals and lesbians don't procreate as God commanded mankind to do. The Creator's very first commandment to Adam and Eve was, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth..." (Gn 1:28). "Gays" defy God's very first words to mankind. They seek not children but pleasure, to the exclusion of all else. And in their self-absorbed folly, they taunt us with "gay pride." Are they proud that their lifestyle is not only "dangerous" (it shortens the lifespan by 24 years<sup>2</sup>) but that it would abruptly end the human race if universally adopted? What madness supports this celebrated perversion?

Vanneste is appealing his case to the European Court of Human Rights, a likely exercise in futility. Truth used to be a sure defense in a lawsuit. Today truth is irrelevant: the issue is whether a "protected minority" or a special interest group feels offended. Vladimir Bukovsky, a former Soviet dissident, warned that "the EU's enforcement of political correctness was a symbol of the Union's slide toward a similar [Soviet-like] oppressive regime."

On October 10, 2004, in Philadelphia, eleven evangelical Christians were arrested and jailed for peacefully witnessing for Christ at a "gay parade"—four of them for quoting Bible verses while walking a public sidewalk. In Germany, a priest faces jail for publicly criticizing abortionists, and in Holland, 'fornicators' and 'adulterers' are protected classes and cannot be criticized.<sup>3</sup>

On October 6, 2006, LifeSiteNews reported, "The gloves have come off; the Parliamentary debate in Canada has moved beyond homosexual 'marriage' and on to refusing freedoms for those with religious beliefs opposed to homosexuality and those with conscientious reasons for opposing it."<sup>4</sup> Hundreds of other examples of "political correctness" gone berserk in defense of immorality throughout the Western world could be cited, space permitting.

What is happening today reflects a long history. Visiting Holland, Germany, France, and England, countries where the Protestant Reformation challenged Roman Catholicism, which had held the entire Western world in its iron grip for centuries, is inspiring but at the same time disheartening. It is thrilling to visit the Wittenberg Castle Church, where the Reformation began. It held one of Europe's largest collections of religious relics—some 19,000 accumulated by Frederick III. Pilgrims viewing all of them would receive indulgences that would allegedly shorten their time in purgatory by 5,209 years<sup>5</sup>—the largest reduction obtainable in one place outside of Rome.

Of course, these poor souls never suspected that on January 1, 1967, over the signature of Pope Paul VI, their infallible Church would issue its "Apostolic Constitution on the Revision of Indulgences," admitting centuries of false promises, undoing the reduction of the purgatorial sufferings deceased Catholics thought they had purchased, and making new requirements they couldn't possibly fulfill, having been dead and presumably still in purgatory after 400 years of torment in its flames.<sup>6</sup>

This was the madness that ruled the Middle Ages. There were tiny vials of "true milk from the Virgin Mary's breasts," pickled fingers and toes of this or that "saint," and enough pieces of wood in Europe venerated as parts of the "true cross" to build a cathedral. Even toenails of "saints" were worshiped by the deluded devout. Peter's toes were uncommonly prolific. There were enough "certified trimmings" in Europe's cathedrals to fill a gunnysack. The biggest scam was selling "indulgences" to release deceased relatives from purgatory—and who would refuse to buy Aunt Maria's release from the flames! From such blood money, St. Peter's Basilica was repaired and expanded to its present form.

No matter how well one knows the story, it is always an emotional experience to stand at the Wittenberg door. There, on October 31, 1517, Martin Luther nailed his Disputation of the Power and Efficacy of Indulgences, known as the 95 Theses. By 1518, copies in other languages had been read throughout Europe, arousing rage against the Roman Catholic Church. Luther's brave challenge at the risk of his life shook the church and world of his day. Oh, that it would happen again—not just to Catholicism (which hasn't changed), but to Protestantism as well!

Visiting those areas of Europe and remembering the impact of Luther's simple paper is deeply moving—but at the same time discouraging. Everywhere, one sees the ruins that the Reformation has left in its wake: apostate state churches scarcely attended, mostly dead and a reproach to Christ instead of the centers for proclaiming the gospel they once were. "Christian" Europe has assuredly forsaken the Lord and is beginning to reap in earnest the fruit of the rebellion it has been sowing for a long, long time.

The liberalism of England's universities, media, and courts undermined any sense of God-given morality that had barely survived from the days of Luther and Calvin. "Multiculturalism" is the new faith—a multiculturalism that embraces every religion and creed. There is, however, one exception: the culture of the host country, England. Why? Because it is Western and has a Christian heritage. That, above all, is not acceptable. Islam most assuredly is in, and Christianity is out.

In fact, it was the rejection of Christianity that opened Britain to the amoral liberalism prevalent in its courts, media, and universities that now favors Muhammad over Christ and is sowing the seeds of its own destruction.

The most disheartening—even frightening—experience each time one returns to Britain and Europe is to see firsthand the evidence of the "new reformation" sweeping those countries and the world today. A fresh Islamic invasion (already far more effective than the military invasion that was turned back at Poitiers-Tours in 732 and Vienna in the 18th century) is changing the face of England, France, Holland, Germany, and the other countries that supported the first Reformation. The new privileged "minority" are the Muslim immigrants, many of whom have come in obedience to Muhammad's command (which all Muslims everywhere are obligated to obey in the name of Allah and Islam) to take over the entire world by violence, if necessary. They mostly refuse to be integrated into the societies they invade, retaining their own customs and language, while demanding "rights" (including welfare support of multiple wives) from the country they intend to destroy. The protection of the West's liberal laws assists terrorists in the commanded takeover. Imam Abu Baseer, a leading religious supporter of al-Qaeda, confessed:

One of the goals of immigration is the revival of the duty of jihad and enforcement of their power over the infidels. Immigration and jihad go together.<sup>7</sup>

Christianity and Christ may be mocked in the West, but no word must be whispered (for fear of violent reprisals) against Islam. One city in England is already 75 percent Muslim and has a Muslim mayor. Non-Muslims move out, property values plummet, allowing more Muslims to move in at bargain prices. Islamists boast that they will eventually have a string of Muslims-only cities in a crescent shape stretching across the heartland of England. They insist that this "crescent" will be ruled by sharia (Islamic law), as in Saudi Arabia, where women are publically stoned to death (if the family doesn't kill them first) for "allowing" themselves to be raped; no non-Muslim place of worship may be built; those who convert from Islam to any other religion are beheaded; and Islamic law rules an Islamic state. This is Islam's intent for the entire world.

The cost of opposing Islam or Muhammad far exceeds the judgments decreed by liberal courts against anti-abortionists or anti-gays—a cost that has already mounted into thousands of lives and billions of dollars. We've seen it in murder, mayhem, and destruction through riots in Paris, trains blown up in Madrid, subways and buses exploding in London, planes flown into the Twin Towers in New York, and Shiites and Sunnis slaughtering one another with a ferocity and cruelty that proclaims to the world—if the world were not afraid to listen—that Islam is not a religion of peace. Yet, in spite of such overwhelming evidence, the same old political correctness insists that all of this horror is in the cause of "peace" because Islam is peace—and woe to anyone who dares to correct that lie!

Incredibly, after 9/11 and again after the London bombings of 2005, government instructions were for police "to avoid doing anything to alienate Britain's Muslims." As a practical matter, "this meant the police had to deny the nature of Islamist terrorism altogether."<sup>8</sup>

"This was why, on the day that four Islamist suicide bombers blew themselves and more than fifty London commuters to bits, the Met's deputy assistant commissioner, Brian Paddick, stood before the television cameras and made the noteworthy comment: 'As far as I am concerned, Islam and terrorists are two words that do not go together.'"<sup>9</sup> Such whitewashing of Islam by high officials has become the scandal of the century. As Melanie Phillips, author of Londonistan, so perceptively points out:

Britain is in Denial. Having allowed the country to turn into a global hub of the Islamic jihad...the British establishment is still failing...to acknowledge what it is actually facing and take the appropriate action. Instead, it is deep into a policy of appeasement of the phenomenon that threatens it...in a panic-stricken attempt to curry favor and buy off the chances of any further attacks....<sup>10</sup>

Though they knew that London had become a headquarters for Islamic terrorism worldwide, the British police "even after 9/11...still took no action against Islamist extremists embedded in London...." The willful blindness to indisputable facts was incredible.

"Over the years, the governments of India, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Israel, France, Algeria, Peru, Yemen, and Russia, among others, lodged...protests about the presence in Britain of terrorist organizations or their sympathizers....Egypt denounced Britain as a hotbed for radicals...."<sup>11</sup>

The reason for this insanity was in the multiculturalism (every culture and religion is equally good—except for Christianity, which must be jettisoned because of its narrow-minded claim that Jesus Christ is the only way to God). In a word, British society has lost its moral foundation, as Phillips explains:

The underlying message in the classroom is that there is no historical truth at all, and whatever had happened in the past [including the crucifixion of Christ for our sins and His resurrection] was only a matter of opinion....At the heart of this unpicking of national identity lies a repudiation of Christianity, the founding faith of the nation and the fundamental source of its values, including its...profound love of liberty.... For the secular elite, Britain is now a "post-Christian society; and insofar as this is not yet the case, this elite is determined to make it so. Under the rubric of multiculturalism and promoting "diversity," local authorities and government bodies are systematically bullying Christianity out of existence...."<sup>12</sup>

Whether in the world or the church, we see much the same thing happening in America. Anything is acceptable—except biblical Christianity. Public schools accommodate witches, homosexuals, and Muslims promoting their beliefs and practices. But Christianity, in the name of freedom, is outlawed. Let us not give up the fight for biblical truth, earnestly contending for the faith, once for all delivered to the saints.

Quotable .....

And is it not obvious that, just as it is a crime to disturb the peace when truth reigns, it is also a crime to remain at peace when the truth is being destroyed?...

Weaklings are those who know the truth, but maintain it only [when] in their interest to do so, and [otherwise] forsake it.

Blaise Pascal

People do not drift toward holiness. Apart from grace-driven effort, people do not gravitate toward godliness, prayer, obedience to Scripture, faith and delight in the Lord. We drift toward disobedience and call it freedom; we drift toward superstition and call it faith. We cherish the indiscipline of lost self-control and call it relaxation; we slouch toward prayerlessness and delude ourselves into thinking we have escaped legalism; we slide toward godlessness and convince ourselves we have been liberated.

D.A. Carson, For the Love of God, vol. 2

Q&A .....

QUESTION: Does the International Genocide Treaty prohibit preaching the gospel? Could someone be prosecuted under it for saying that homosexuality or Islam are condemned in the Bible?

RESPONSE: This Treaty was adopted by Resolution 260 (III) A of the UN General Assembly, 12/9/48, and went into force 1/12/51. It made a law of the declaration by the General Assembly in Res. 96, 12/11/46, making genocide a crime.

You ask, "Could someone be prosecuted under it for saying that homosexuality or Islam are condemned in the Bible?" In a word, yes, because the definition is broad enough to include almost anything. So far, however, this has not been done. The only prosecutions involved Rwanda and Yugoslavia.

Under the treaty, genocide includes any defined action "with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group through causing serious...mental harm to members of the group [emphasis added]."

Although this provision has not been brought into play against preachers of the gospel who give the whole counsel of God, it could be any time the UN decides to do so. Whatever persecution and prosecution may come in the future, let us be faithful now—and also when the time comes.

QUESTION: Does today's "Signs and Wonders" movement relate to the signs and lying wonders of 2 Thessalonians 2?

RESPONSE: Yes. Jesus warned specifically that in the last days false prophets and false Christs would appear, performing lying signs and wonders in His name: "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Mt 7:22,23).

This is a solemn warning. These are not New Agers or other occultists or Satanists. They must be professing Christians accepted as leaders. Yet these "miracle workers" never were true Christians. Christ says, "I...know my sheep" (Jn 10:14), but to these He says, "I never knew you."

Paul must be speaking of the same false prophets: "Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith" (2 Tm 3:8). Jannes and Jambres were the magicians in Pharaoh's court who withstood Moses by duplicating, either through trickery or by the power of Satan, the miracles God did through Moses: "The wise men and the sorcerers [and] magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments" (Ex 7:11,22; 8:7). They were not able, however, to duplicate the miracle of the lice and told Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God..." (8:19).

The major emphasis of TBN and many of its stars is on "signs and wonders." Most are obvious frauds, yet enough apparent miracles occur at their meetings to deceive multitudes. One of the first responses to The Seduction of Christianity was Chairman Oral Roberts's* 1986 organization of positive confession preachers called "International Charismatic Bible Ministries [CBM]." Paul [David] Yonggi Cho was International Honorary Chairman; Jack Hayford* was Vice Chairman; others included Kenneth Copeland* (Secretary), Marilyn Hickey,* Tommy Barnett,* Jamie Buckingham,* Charles Capps, Morris Cerullo, Paul Crouch, Mike Evans, Kenneth Hagin, Sr.,* Benny Hinn, Larry Lea, Francis McNutt, Mike Murdock,* John Osteen,* Earl Paulk,* Fred Price, Richard Roberts,* Jerry Savelle,* Stephen Strang,* Hilton Sutton,* Robert Tilton,* Casey Treat, Bob Weiner, and Ralph Wilkerson. (*Founding Trustee)

Their home page describes them as "a group of men and women in leadership positions for charismatic people of God... who believe in and preach the importance of SIGNS and WONDERS in the life of the church today...sharing methods, revelations, prophecies and teachings in the fullness of the Holy Spirit; and personal encouragement from one minister to another."

In their charter, they promised not to correct one another. The banner behind the speaker at their conferences proclaims, "Love and Unity Through Signs and Wonders." In these pages, we have documented some of Oral Roberts' lies, outright fraud, and false prophecies. If those who are members of CBM are not of the same breed, why have they not risen up to reprove Roberts, and why do they continue to support and praise him? [See The Signs & Wonders' Movement: Exposed DVD, Resource Pages.]

QUESTION: I've read most of What Love Is This? I believe in man's free will and right of choice. However, when I read Luke 1:13-17, especially verse 15, I cannot reconcile the pre-conception appointment of John with the free will of man. I'm aware that there are other divine appointments of a similar vein; these seem to remove human choice from one's personal destiny. Your insight would be appreciated.

RESPONSE: Actually, there is nothing in these verses to negate John the Baptist's free choice. All that is described is God's call upon his life—the task for which God had chosen him—but he didn't have to obey it. That was a great honor, for which he was empowered by the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb, but he had to be willing.

Nor was this choosing by God to salvation and heaven. John was chosen for a certain task. Of course, he had to become a believer in order to fulfill that task, but that was up to him. The Old Testament prophecies only identify this chosen one by the ministry he would fulfill: "the voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD" (Is 40:3); "I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me...[in the spirit of] Elijah the prophet...he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers" (Mal 3:1; 4:5,6).

The messenger, however, is not named. Had John not been willing, God would have raised up someone else. But since God knows the future, He knew that John the Baptist would undertake the mission He would give him. The fact that God knew what John would do does not mean that God caused him to do it, yet that was what Calvin and Luther both insisted upon.

Though chosen of God to be the forerunner for Christ, John had to choose to obey as the Spirit would lead. Remember, Judas was also chosen but rejected his appointed ministry and betrayed the Lord: "Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?" (Jn 6:70).

QUESTION: You keep saying that Jesus is coming soon. Yet Revelation says that every tribe, language, and ethnic group will be in heaven. There are many people groups that have had no opportunity to hear the gospel. How does that square with your teaching of an imminent return?

RESPONSE: Believers are told repeatedly throughout the New Testament to be ready for Christ to come at any moment: "Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning...like unto men that wait for their lord..." (Lk 12:35-36); "...in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ..." (Phil 3:20); "turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; and to wait for his Son from heaven... even Jesus" (1 Thes 1:9,10); "looking for that blessed hope...the glorious appearing of... our Saviour Jesus Christ" (Ti 2:13); "...unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time..." (Heb 9:28), etc.

Surely, "loins girded about...lights burning" indicates imminency. If the early church was to wait and look for Christ to come from heaven, there could not have been any prior event that had to occur first. It would be senseless to be in an attitude of waiting and looking for Christ at any moment if He couldn't come until Antichrist had appeared or until the end of the Great Tribulation.

The Bible ends with the cry from the bride, "Even so, come, Lord Jesus" (Rv 22:20). To express that desire if Christ couldn't come until some other event or events had first occurred would be the mockery of demanding payment on a debt not yet due.

There is no question about it: imminency is the teaching of the New Testament. Then what about representatives being in heaven, as you say, from "every tribe, language, and ethnic group" if many groups haven't even heard the gospel yet? How could the Lord rapture His own until at least one had gotten saved from every people group?

You are limiting God. Did a missionary get the gospel to Enoch, Job, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Samuel, David, et al.? Through the witness of creation and His law written in their consciences, God has always been able to bring those with open hearts to Himself out of every tribe at any time in history.

Furthermore, babies who die in innocence go to heaven. Of his baby that had just died, David said, "I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me" (2 Sm 12:23). Therefore, there are already in heaven many from every people group that ever existed, having died as infants in innocence.

News Alert.....

WorldNetDaily.com, 1/13/07: A RABBI'S WARNING TO U.S. CHRISTIANS [Excerpts]—There is no better term than [a Goebbels-like] propaganda blitzkrieg to describe what has been unleashed against Christian conservatives recently. Consider the long list of anti-Christian books that have been published in recent months. Here are just a few samples of more than 30 similar titles, all from mainstream publishers: American Fascists: The Christian Right and the War on America; The Baptizing of America: The Religious Right's Plans for the Rest of Us; The End of Faith: Religion, Terror, and the Future of Reason; Piety & Politics: The Right-wing Assault on Religious Freedom; Atheist Universe: The Thinking Person's Answer to Christian Fundamentalism; Thy Kingdom Come: How the Religious Right Distorts the Faith and Threatens America; Religion Gone Bad: The Hidden Dangers of the Christian Right.

Richard Dawkins, an Oxford University professor, is one of the generals in the anti-Christian army of the secular left. American academia treats him with reverence and hangs on his every word when he insists that "religious myths ought not to be tolerated" and that the state should intervene to protect children from their parents' religious beliefs. Needless to say, he means Christian beliefs.

The war is against those who regard the Bible to be God's revelation to humanity and the Ten Commandments to be His set of rules for all time. Phase one in this war is to make Christianity, well, sort of socially unacceptable. Something only foolish, poor and ugly people could turn to.

Fervent zealots of secularism are flinging themselves into this anti-Christian war with enormous fanaticism. If they succeed, Christianity will be driven underground, and its benign influence on the character of America will be lost. In its place we shall see a sinister secularism that menaces Bible believers of all faiths. Once the voice of the Bible has been silenced, the war on Western Civilization can begin and we shall see a long night of barbarism descend on the West.

Without a vibrant and vital Christianity, America is doomed, and without America, the West is doomed. Which is why I, an Orthodox Jewish rabbi, devoted to Jewish survival, the Torah and Israel am so terrified of American Christianity caving in.

Many of us Jews are ready to stand with you. But you must lead. You must replace your timidity with nerve and your diffidence with daring and determination. You are under attack. Now is the time to resist it.

HOSTAGE DRILL PREPARES SCHOOL FOR CRISIS—The scenario has played out in real life across America: Gunfire echoes through a school and students are held hostage.

But police, faculty and staff lived out their own make-believe version yesterday of just such a tragedy at Burlington Township High School, complete with Kevlar-clad officers, armed suspects and students portraying the wounded and dead. The purpose of the drill was to test the reactions of police, faculty and administration....

The mock terror attack involved two irate men armed with handguns who invaded the high school, [shot] several students in the hallway and then barricaded themselves in the media center with 10 student hostages....

Investigators described them as members of a right-wing fundamentalist group...who don't believe in separation of church and state [and] went to the school...because the daughter of one had been expelled for praying before class....

A team of five police officers entered the school...with their firearms drawn...to contain the gunmen...so the rest of the school could be safely evacuated.

Members of the Burlington County SWAT Team also arrived to evacuate wounded students and perform emergency first aid. Observing and evaluating during the exercise were various police officers, school administrators and officials from the state and the county Office of Emergency Management.

[TBC: Why would Christian fundamentalists be the "bad guys" in this drill? Perhaps because there's no worry about an outcry accusing Burlington County of being "Christianophobic." The rabbi's concern needs to be heeded.]

Letters .....

Dear Dave and Tom,

I quit going to church when I was 13 until my wife dragged me back, kicking and screaming....I went faithfully for 10 or 12 years and I can honestly say I did not know who Christ was. I attended Bible studies by people who had studied all their lives and [I] learned nothing. I listened to empty sermons that made no sense whatsoever....No mention of repentance or what that means....I had to leave the church and get challenged by a repentant [sinner] to come to Christ. And one of the ministries he introduced me to was yours. Praise my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ for people like yourselves, who stick by God's Word and help [us] understand the all-sufficiency of Christ. BL (Canada)

Dear Mr. McMahon,

Regarding "Snailer Mail" [1/07]...rejoice that so many folks eagerly await the newsletter! I think God arranged the "problem" to encourage you...: you are making a difference and people do care! And as this famine for the word of God increases and spreads, we believers will need to find other ways to nourish our spirit than to be spoon fed....Our Bibles could be taken tomorrow morning! And then what? Do we have enough Bible in our minds and hearts to be able to share with [others]? SS (CA)

Dear TBC,

I really appreciated Brother McMahon's March article....Your writing about images and idolatry really hit home....The [use of] visual ways in trying to appease the senses in the fundamental ranks...is disturbing to me, because the Holy Spirit is not being utilized to convict men's hearts, as the Lord said in John 16:8-11. We are to live by faith not by sight. BL (email)

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

The recent articles [10/06 and 2/07] by Brother Tom are a much needed wake-up call to the Body of Christ. By God's grace, I was led to reject 12-Step programs and other human potential, psychology-based programs. Brother Dave's Occult Invasion helped me to reject these types of programs years ago....I look forward to sharing this information with those the Lord brings into my realm of influence....God's revelation is that the Gospel is sufficient to deliver from any sin/addiction. It is not a recovery program. Recover what! A dead self? RH (prisoner, FL)

Dear TBC,

I am...dismayed that TBC has chosen to cover...Global Warming as if it were a religious issue. It is not. It is a political and environmental issue. I have since come to the conclusion that TBC's stance on the findings of global warming are incorrect....While warning about grant money that may be leading to a conflict of interest on one side of the issue, TBC has ignored the oil and coal lobby's money leading to a conflict of interest on the other side of the issue....Keep in mind that the money that we pay out to foreign oil through the oil companies...goes to supporting Islamic regimes such as Saudi Arabia, which aggressively funds the spread of Islam worldwide. Please stick to matters of biblical doctrine, it is very upsetting...to see TBC use its position of influence as a biblical ministry to promote a view that is of a particular special interest [and] nothing to do with biblical doctrine. AL (email)

Dear Mr. Hunt,

I have been a believer in the Lord Jesus for 21 years...and your teaching ministry has been a large part in helping me grow in my understanding....I am a Jewish believer in Yeshua our Messiah...and I rejoice in your outspoken support for all Jews and Israel in the face of the ever-growing evil of anti-Semitism....There is a 'biblical illiteracy' that is rife throughout the UK and in Scotland, which was once known as the 'land of the Bible,' and ministries such as yours help people get back to the Scriptures. Thank you. DM (Scotland)

TBC Notes

Biblical Thoughtfulness

Our March article, which addressed images in worship as a form of idolatry, generated some widely diverse reactions. Here are two: A TBC reader made known what we had written to a pastor who had encouraged friends to witness an artistically adept painter creating an image that represented Jesus. The pastor reacted to the correction by repenting and making a public apology.

On the other end of the spectrum, a response came to me personally that what I had written made me appear as "the only authority on this planet when it comes to God's Word and how it should be interpreted and/or delivered [and] that everyone else is wrong and only [I am] correct."

I'm thankful for both responses: the pastor's, because he came under conviction for something he had done without considering it from a biblical viewpoint, and then, after searching Scriptures, he corrected his action by repenting and asking the forgiveness of those he had influenced by his error. To me, that demonstrates a shepherd who loves Jesus and has taken to heart His words, "feed My sheep." Lord, that I might have the grace to do likewise!

The other reaction reminded me of another grace that I need: that pride or what may be perceived as pride by others would not infect my writing. Please forgive me if I impressed anyone that way. I approached that article with fear and trembling.

The subject matter we address is often difficult, and we don't always communicate our concerns in the best way possible. Nevertheless, one of our goals is to exhort our readers to think through biblically whatever influences their walk with, and worship of, the Lord. In that process, we want to be nothing more than signposts, truly pointing the way to Jesus and His Word, and our prayer is that our readers, listeners, and viewers would be like the Bereans, making sure that our "pointing" is truly to the Scriptures.

Pray for our thoughtfulness, both that we would have a kind regard for others in directing them to biblical truth, and that we would give all diligence and carefulness in the handling of and acting upon God's Word.

THE NEED FOR A THOROUGH PURGING

While there may be some Christian psychologists who use only Scripture in their counseling, their designation of themselves as “psychologists” is extremely unfortunate. That word has an established meaning. It designates a godless system that does not merit any association with the word “Christian.” What confusion to link in any way “the faith once [for all] delivered to the saints” (Jude 3) with humanistic theories of sinful men! The very term “Christian psychology” gives honor where only reproof is due; and it sullies our Lord’s name by dragging it into the muck of infidelity.

Christian psychologists embrace and practice virtually every kind of psychology and therapy ever invented, from primal scream to shamanism. By this means, godless beliefs and practices (which have already proved to be both dangerous and ineffective and have numerous critics even among secular psychologists and psychiatrists themselves) have been brought into the church to deceive the flock.

Are Christians now expected to rejoice that the Bible has been discovered at long last to be in agreement with atheistic humanism? Would this mean that we Christians no longer need to go about with a hangdog look and poor self-image but can now hold our heads high before the world and especially in academic circles? Should we all be grateful because a “new reformation” that psychologizes Christianity has uncovered novel interpretations of Scripture never before known in the history of the church, thus bringing Christianity at last into agreement with the theories of anti-Christians such as Freud, Jung, and their disciples?

This “new and improved Christianity” is being welcomed with apparent disregard for the increasing admissions by secular psychologists themselves that psychotherapy is really bankrupt. R.D. Laing, one of psychology’s most respected leaders, gave his opinion that not even one “fundamental insight into relations between human beings [had] resulted from a century of psychotherapy.” Yet the thoroughly discredited theories of psychology are credited by Christians with having brought great blessing to the church through fundamental new insight into “God’s truth”!

Before believing that suspicious scenario, we would do well to heed the many non-Christian psychologists and psychiatrists who are issuing warnings, such as the following by internationally respected psychiatrist and author E. Fuller Torrey:

THE TECHNIQUES USED BY WESTERN PSYCHIATRISTS ARE, WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, ON EXACTLY THE SAME SCIENTIFIC PLANE AS THE TECHNIQUES OF WITCH DOCTORS. PSYCHIATRY....IS A FALSE MESSIAH.<sup>1</sup>

Martin L. Gross comments: “Today, the M.D. psychiatrist and his first cousin, the Ph.D. psychologist, have appointed themselves the undisputed Solomons of our era. The new seer delivers his pronouncements with the infallible air of a papal bull, a stance which intimidates even the most confident of laymen.”<sup>2</sup>

In order to return to biblical Christianity, the church must renounce psychological theories and terminology and completely separate itself from this rival religion to which it has been wed in an unholy alliance. How can there be a partnership between the wisdom of God and that of the world, which God unequivocally says is foolish (1 Corinthians 1:20)? Justification is offered in the blasphemous error Christian psychologists promote: that God’s Word is lacking essential ingredients for guiding mankind to personal happiness and fulfillment. What other possible reason could there be for this unequal yoke with the world except the delusion that psychology provides the wisdom and enablement that the Bible lacks?

Instead of purging out the leaven, however, the church continues to give increasing trust and honor to psychology. Christians are asked to accept psychology as an additional source of truth and to put it on an equal footing with God’s Word, which Christ said is alone “the truth” (John 17:17). The actual truth is, however, that psychological counseling has proven to be bankrupt. Its false gospel continually changes as its conflicting theories ebb and flow and its gurus come and go.

Lawrence LeShan, past president of the Association for Humanistic Psychology, suggested that psychotherapy would be known as the hoax of the twentieth century. He also pointed out that “The basic model of man that led to the development of [Eastern] meditational techniques is the same model that led to humanistic psychotherapy”<sup>3</sup>—yet the church loves it.

Today, even as many leading secular psychologists and psychiatrists are debunking their own profession in books and articles with such titles as The Myth of Mental Illness, The Myth of Neurosis, Psychotherapy, The Dangerous Cure, The Death of Psychiatry, Psychoanalysis, The Impossible Profession, etc., incredibly, Christian psychologists wax ever more eloquent in praise of the very system that is being exposed as a harmful fraud by secular practitioners. As a result, discredited psychological theories and practices that have deceived and damaged almost the whole of mankind are being embraced within the church.

We do well to heed J. Vernon McGee’s warning that if it continues to grow in favor, “Christian psychology could well be the death of the evangelical church.” If biblical Christianity is to survive, it needs to purge itself completely of this viper it has clutched to its breast.

JUDGMENT DAY! CONFERENCE

NEW! GUEST SPEAKER

FORMER PLO MEMBER, AUTHOR AND INTERNATIONAL LECTURER

Walid Shoebat, grandson of the Muslim Mukhtar (chieftain) of Beit Sahour-Bethlehem and friend of Haj-Ahmeen Al-Husseini, the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem and notorious friend of Adolf Hitler, became a member of the PLO as a young man, participating in acts of terror and violence against Israel, for which he was imprisoned. Coming to the U.S., he continued his anti-Israel activities. In 1993, after studying the Jewish Bible, he realized that everything he had been taught about Jews was a lie. Consequently, he became an advocate for his former enemy. Driven by a deep passion to heal his own soul, Walid set out to bring the truth about the Jews and Israel to the world. Author of Dear Muslim, Let Me Tell You Why I Believed and Israel and the World's Mock Trial, Shoebat exposes anti-Semitism and the hatred of Jews in both the Islamic, Christian, and secular worlds.
